THE GAZETTE.

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 15.

Certainly, and I make bold to say, it the meeting at Liberty Hall, last Friday night, did not show a "Happy Family" on the occasion. I thought of the lines—"children you should never let your angry passions," &c. I consider it the most mischeivous gathering, in its result. that has been in Alexandria for many a day. Alas! that it should be so. Better dispense with public political meetings altogether than have any more like the one in question. It' our people do not want to see the scenes of South Carolina enacted over again in our midst, they had better harmonize and fraternize and bury all petty differences of opinion and go to the polls shoulder to shoulder and vote for the very best men. Let us discard all political aspirants, fiomenters and demagogues. This is the advice of an OLD LINE WHIG.

An Otter Chasing Sheep.—A short time since a young gentleman named Hughes was travelling along the the public road about one mile east of Darlington Heights Postoffice, in this county, when he met several sheep running very rapidly towards him. A few moments after he met an otter in full pursuit. He seized a stick and rushed upon it, when it made battle, and having broken the stick in an effort to strike it, before he could get another he was so hotly pressed by the "varmint" that he was compelled to climb the fence near by for protection. The otter then retreated along the fence, when Hughes jumped to the ground, seized a rail, and dispatched it.—Farmville

UNSETTLED WAR CLAIMS.

UNSETTLED WAR CLAIMS.

A T ITS LAST SESSION CONGRESS, AS an amendment to the army appropriation bill, directed the President to appoint a commission to ascertain and adjust the claims of all loyal citizens in the South for Quartermaster and Commissary supplies furnished to the United States during the war. Under the head of quartermaster are included hay, straw, wood, rent of houses and lots, grain, horses and mules, &c.—As commissary stores are included cattle and hogs, flour, corn meal, &c. As yet the rules which will be adopted by the commission concerning proof of loyalty and the furnishing of supplies are unknown. It is very necessary, however, that all claimants should have their claims presented at once, so as to have whatever benefit may result from priority of application, benefit may result from priority of application,

The undersigned will receive and promptly attend to all claims of parties who deem themselves entitled to compensation under the above act of

CHARLES WHITTLESEY, UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER,

-AND-ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR IN BANKRUPTCY.

Congress having just amended the Bankrupt law so that nearly all parties can be discharged from their debts unobstructed by the fifty per cent. clause, so-called, another opportunity offers to secure the benefits of this most effective and permanent measure of relief. The above-named will make bankrupt business a specialty; will make bankrupt business a specialty; will be benefits of the most moderate terms. procure discharges on the most moderate terms, and transact all business in that line at prices which cannot fail to be satisfactory. Being Uni-ted States Commissioner he will endeavor to visit the different counties on court days, and thus trips to Alexandria in beginning and proceeding with their cases. Discharges can be obtained here before Register Hill as promptly as in Richmond or elsewhere, and at much less expense to parties. It may be added that the Bankrupt act, in connection with the Homestead exemption, which it is now believed will be secured to the bankrupt under the bankrupt law, is the only real relief now offered to parties struggling in the hopeless bondage of old debts.
